

Easter Wardrobes Promise to Dazzle

Four Huge Conventions of Women in Washington
This Spring Give Opportunity to Show Off
Finery; Styles of All the World
Will Be Seen

BY CAROLYN VANCE.
Special Correspondent of The Standard-Examiner.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Is there something of the eternal feminine in the fact that four huge conventions of women are to take place in and around Washington just after Easter, when the Easter wardrobe is fairly bursting with spring splendors?

As Easter parades last year were coming to the conventions by thousands and unless all signs fail they are coming gorgeously gowned.

Easter costumes were never designed to waste their sweetness on one's home town, when thousands of women may see and admire and perhaps envy at a convention in a big city.

AT WHITE HOUSE.
Mrs. Harding will receive the delegates to each of the four organization meetings and at these receptions at the White House the cream of the spring wardrobes will be trotted out.

Lady Astor, who is coming over from England to attend the convention of the League of Women Voters in Washington beginning April 17, delegates to the National Woman's party dedication ceremonies and women from all over the world who will attend the meeting of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom in Washington. This last organization will probably show styles direct from Paris, London, Stockholm, Berlin and Vienna. Other national organizations of women will meet this spring in other parts of the country.

WOMEN DEMAND PEACE.
The Women's National League for Peace and Freedom, headed by Jane Addams of Hull House, Chicago, and the world in general will meet in Washington soon, which reminds me that there is at least one subject upon which women are not split into factions and that is subject of peace.

All women's organizations are co-operating in the national council for the limitation of armaments which is holding headquarters in Washington all during the arms conference and is still doing business there. In this association the lion and the lamb among women have laid down to the common peace of the world.

ADDING TO PARADE.
Other sections of the Easter parade will include delegates to the annual spring convention of the A. R. in Washington beginning April 17, delegates to the National Woman's party dedication ceremonies and women from all over the world who will attend the meeting of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom in Washington. This last organization will probably show styles direct from Paris, London, Stockholm, Berlin and Vienna. Other national organizations of women will meet this spring in other parts of the country.

national organizations of women will meet this spring in other parts of the country are the Y. W. C. A., the American Association of University Women and the Business and Professional Women's clubs.

GOWNS CHEAPER THERE.
The South American and Cuban delegates who will step off the train at Baltimore to attend the Pan-American conference of women, called by the League of Women Voters, are certain to upset a lot of preconceived notions.

The people of Baltimore will look in vain for the dainty filigree of a lacy mantilla or for a ruche coquettishly nestling behind an ear-ringed ear. No one should expect the women to look like the ladies on cigar box labels, or even like the belles of the Argentine who coquetted through the first reels of the Four Horsemen with Rudolph Valentino.

Among the cultured women of Cuba and South America, the mantilla, full Spanish skirt, and fondango airs and graces are passe. These are left for the peasantry.

Paris gowns are the rule, and here is a real bit of news. Gowns from Paris may be obtained cheaper in South America than gowns from Chicago and New York. Think of obtaining a Paquin frock for the same price as a mere dress from Sears Roebuck and company, a fact vouched for by the South American visitors.

This has something to do with duty and shipping problems that are not clear in my mind.

WOMEN DEMAND PEACE.
The Women's National League for Peace and Freedom, headed by Jane Addams of Hull House, Chicago, and the world in general will meet in Washington soon, which reminds me that there is at least one subject upon which women are not split into factions and that is subject of peace.

All women's organizations are co-operating in the national council for the limitation of armaments which is holding headquarters in Washington all during the arms conference and is still doing business there. In this association the lion and the lamb among women have laid down to the common peace of the world.

ADDING TO PARADE.
Other sections of the Easter parade will include delegates to the annual spring convention of the A. R. in Washington beginning April 17, delegates to the National Woman's party dedication ceremonies and women from all over the world who will attend the meeting of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom in Washington. This last organization will probably show styles direct from Paris, London, Stockholm, Berlin and Vienna. Other national organizations of women will meet this spring in other parts of the country.

national organizations of women will meet this spring in other parts of the country are the Y. W. C. A., the American Association of University Women and the Business and Professional Women's clubs.

GOWNS CHEAPER THERE.
The South American and Cuban delegates who will step off the train at Baltimore to attend the Pan-American conference of women, called by the League of Women Voters, are certain to upset a lot of preconceived notions.

The people of Baltimore will look in vain for the dainty filigree of a lacy mantilla or for a ruche coquettishly nestling behind an ear-ringed ear. No one should expect the women to look like the ladies on cigar box labels, or even like the belles of the Argentine who coquetted through the first reels of the Four Horsemen with Rudolph Valentino.

Among the cultured women of Cuba and South America, the mantilla, full Spanish skirt, and fondango airs and graces are passe. These are left for the peasantry.

Paris gowns are the rule, and here is a real bit of news. Gowns from Paris may be obtained cheaper in South America than gowns from Chicago and New York. Think of obtaining a Paquin frock for the same price as a mere dress from Sears Roebuck and company, a fact vouched for by the South American visitors.

This has something to do with duty and shipping problems that are not clear in my mind.

WOMEN DEMAND PEACE.
The Women's National League for Peace and Freedom, headed by Jane Addams of Hull House, Chicago, and the world in general will meet in Washington soon, which reminds me that there is at least one subject upon which women are not split into factions and that is subject of peace.

All women's organizations are co-operating in the national council for the limitation of armaments which is holding headquarters in Washington all during the arms conference and is still doing business there. In this association the lion and the lamb among women have laid down to the common peace of the world.

ADDING TO PARADE.
Other sections of the Easter parade will include delegates to the annual spring convention of the A. R. in Washington beginning April 17, delegates to the National Woman's party dedication ceremonies and women from all over the world who will attend the meeting of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom in Washington. This last organization will probably show styles direct from Paris, London, Stockholm, Berlin and Vienna. Other national organizations of women will meet this spring in other parts of the country.

national organizations of women will meet this spring in other parts of the country are the Y. W. C. A., the American Association of University Women and the Business and Professional Women's clubs.

GOWNS CHEAPER THERE.
The South American and Cuban delegates who will step off the train at Baltimore to attend the Pan-American conference of women, called by the League of Women Voters, are certain to upset a lot of preconceived notions.

The people of Baltimore will look in vain for the dainty filigree of a lacy mantilla or for a ruche coquettishly nestling behind an ear-ringed ear. No one should expect the women to look like the ladies on cigar box labels, or even like the belles of the Argentine who coquetted through the first reels of the Four Horsemen with Rudolph Valentino.

Among the cultured women of Cuba and South America, the mantilla, full Spanish skirt, and fondango airs and graces are passe. These are left for the peasantry.

Paris gowns are the rule, and here is a real bit of news. Gowns from Paris may be obtained cheaper in South America than gowns from Chicago and New York. Think of obtaining a Paquin frock for the same price as a mere dress from Sears Roebuck and company, a fact vouched for by the South American visitors.

This has something to do with duty and shipping problems that are not clear in my mind.

WOMEN DEMAND PEACE.
The Women's National League for Peace and Freedom, headed by Jane Addams of Hull House, Chicago, and the world in general will meet in Washington soon, which reminds me that there is at least one subject upon which women are not split into factions and that is subject of peace.

All women's organizations are co-operating in the national council for the limitation of armaments which is holding headquarters in Washington all during the arms conference and is still doing business there. In this association the lion and the lamb among women have laid down to the common peace of the world.

ADDING TO PARADE.
Other sections of the Easter parade will include delegates to the annual spring convention of the A. R. in Washington beginning April 17, delegates to the National Woman's party dedication ceremonies and women from all over the world who will attend the meeting of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom in Washington. This last organization will probably show styles direct from Paris, London, Stockholm, Berlin and Vienna. Other national organizations of women will meet this spring in other parts of the country.

national organizations of women will meet this spring in other parts of the country are the Y. W. C. A., the American Association of University Women and the Business and Professional Women's clubs.

GOWNS CHEAPER THERE.
The South American and Cuban delegates who will step off the train at Baltimore to attend the Pan-American conference of women, called by the League of Women Voters, are certain to upset a lot of preconceived notions.

The people of Baltimore will look in vain for the dainty filigree of a lacy mantilla or for a ruche coquettishly nestling behind an ear-ringed ear. No one should expect the women to look like the ladies on cigar box labels, or even like the belles of the Argentine who coquetted through the first reels of the Four Horsemen with Rudolph Valentino.

Among the cultured women of Cuba and South America, the mantilla, full Spanish skirt, and fondango airs and graces are passe. These are left for the peasantry.

Paris gowns are the rule, and here is a real bit of news. Gowns from Paris may be obtained cheaper in South America than gowns from Chicago and New York. Think of obtaining a Paquin frock for the same price as a mere dress from Sears Roebuck and company, a fact vouched for by the South American visitors.

This has something to do with duty and shipping problems that are not clear in my mind.

WOMEN DEMAND PEACE.
The Women's National League for Peace and Freedom, headed by Jane Addams of Hull House, Chicago, and the world in general will meet in Washington soon, which reminds me that there is at least one subject upon which women are not split into factions and that is subject of peace.

All women's organizations are co-operating in the national council for the limitation of armaments which is holding headquarters in Washington all during the arms conference and is still doing business there. In this association the lion and the lamb among women have laid down to the common peace of the world.

ADDING TO PARADE.
Other sections of the Easter parade will include delegates to the annual spring convention of the A. R. in Washington beginning April 17, delegates to the National Woman's party dedication ceremonies and women from all over the world who will attend the meeting of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom in Washington. This last organization will probably show styles direct from Paris, London, Stockholm, Berlin and Vienna. Other national organizations of women will meet this spring in other parts of the country.

national organizations of women will meet this spring in other parts of the country are the Y. W. C. A., the American Association of University Women and the Business and Professional Women's clubs.

GOWNS CHEAPER THERE.
The South American and Cuban delegates who will step off the train at Baltimore to attend the Pan-American conference of women, called by the League of Women Voters, are certain to upset a lot of preconceived notions.

The people of Baltimore will look in vain for the dainty filigree of a lacy mantilla or for a ruche coquettishly nestling behind an ear-ringed ear. No one should expect the women to look like the ladies on cigar box labels, or even like the belles of the Argentine who coquetted through the first reels of the Four Horsemen with Rudolph Valentino.

Among the cultured women of Cuba and South America, the mantilla, full Spanish skirt, and fondango airs and graces are passe. These are left for the peasantry.

Paris gowns are the rule, and here is a real bit of news. Gowns from Paris may be obtained cheaper in South America than gowns from Chicago and New York. Think of obtaining a Paquin frock for the same price as a mere dress from Sears Roebuck and company, a fact vouched for by the South American visitors.

MISS MINNIE MOORE BROWN and Miss Fay King (Ford photo), who will appear in a concert program to be given at the Thirteenth ward hall on Friday, April 14. Appearing with Miss Brown and Miss King are several other local artists.

MISS MINNIE MOORE BROWN

MISS FAY KING

Virgil C. Hall and Mrs. E. R. Christensen.

Mrs. Joseph S. Taggart entertained Le Bon Temps club Wednesday afternoon at luncheon and cards at her home on Logan avenue. A potted primrose was the centerpiece for the table. Covers were laid for the eight club members and one extra guest, Mr. George H. Wilkinson.

Mrs. W. W. Orem and Miss Gladys Orem left Wednesday for Los Angeles to join Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Orem, who are spending some time there. Mrs. W. W. Orem will remain for two months.

Miss Louise Danglefield, a bride of the week, was the guest of honor at a shower given last Monday night by Mrs. Thomas H. Ash at her home on First avenue. The living room was decorated in ferns and red hearts. A pink color scheme was carried out in the dining room. Pink carnations in a crystal vase formed a centerpiece for the supper table. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Albert Danglefield. The guests numbered fifteen.

The bride entertained Sunday afternoon at a trousseau tea at her home on Eighth East street. A pink and white color effect was carried out in the decorations. Pink and white sweet peas were arranged in a crystal basket as a centerpiece for the tea table. The hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. B. S. Danglefield, Sr. Mrs. George E. Baker and Mrs. Levi Littlefield. One hundred invitations were issued.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Mary Louise Yunker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Yunker, 573 Tenth avenue, and W. H. Bantz. The wedding took place Saturday afternoon, March 25, in Provo. The couple have returned from a brief wedding journey. They will make their home at the Bantz residence, 320 Eighth East street.

Miss Lillian Kauffman entertained at a miscellaneous shower last Monday night at her home on P street in honor of Miss Jeanne Hedges, an April bride. Kewpies and spring flowers decorated the rooms. The guests included Miss Grace Mooney, Miss Gladys Hartell, Miss Leone Pines, Miss Elva Clays, Miss Verna Green, Miss Beulah Terry, Miss Isabel Kauffman, Mrs. Gordon Hedges, Mrs. Thomas Hedges, Mrs. J. H. Lair and Miss Jennie Brown.

Mrs. Elizabeth Geoghegan reviewed Michael Killiam's "Higher Romance" in an interesting way at the meeting of the current events and current literature section of the Catholic Women's league Monday afternoon at the Knights of Columbus club room. Current events were reported by different members of the section.

Mrs. C. A. Staples and daughter, Miss Florence Ringwood, entertained Saturday evening, March 25, at a shower at their home in honor of Miss Claire Leavitt, who was married Saturday evening.

Mrs. C. W. Poll entertained her sewing club at a luncheon and Kenyon Wednesday afternoon at her home on Center street. A basket of pink roses was the centerpiece for the table. The place cards were in rose designs.

Covers were laid for Mrs. Vivian Snow, Mrs. C. L. Cassidy, Mrs. Bert A. Snow, Mrs. Eugene O. Humphreys, Mrs. Milton Fletcher, Mrs.

ried Saturday to John E. McCordie. The rooms were decorated in daffodils. The guests numbered thirty.

Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Anderson left for San Francisco Tuesday afternoon for a six week stay.

Mrs. William H. Charles announces the engagement of his daughter, Gwendolyn, to Frank Simpson. The wedding will take place at an early date.

Mrs. M. B. Whitney, who has been spending the winter months in Honolulu, arrived home Sunday. She visited en route with relatives in lower California cities and with Mrs. J. C. Hooper and Mrs. John P. Cowan in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Casler, who are spending their honeymoon in southern California, have been staying at the Hotel del Coronado at Coronado Beach. Mrs. Casler was formerly Miss Ruth Daugherty.

Miss Elma Bamberger left last Monday night for New York to visit with relatives.

Mrs. R. J. Walker will leave the middle of April for Pittsburg to visit her daughter, Mrs. Harold Hale McClintic, Jr., formerly Miss Sybil Walker.

Miss Mary McCaffery of Indiana is the guest of her sister, Mrs. L. W. Byrne.

Mrs. W. F. Jensen has returned from a two months' trip to California.

Mrs. A. J. Gibbons and sons, John and William, returned last week from Ocean Park, Cal., where they have spent the winter.

Miss Hattie Lee has returned from a five months' visit to California, and is again at home at the Hyland apartments.

Mrs. L. A. Bailey and Miss Jean Bailey entertained at dinner last Tuesday evening at their home, 2135 East Twenty-first South street, in honor of Miss Agnes Janice Kirby, a spring bride.

Daffodils and blue cornflowers were arranged in a silver basket as a centerpiece for the dinner table. Yellow candles were in silver holders. The place cards were in silver holders.

Covers were laid for Miss Kirby, Miss Gladys Hardman, Miss Verna French, Miss May Jones, Miss Rhea Langston, Mrs. Raymond Kirby, Mrs. Bailey and Miss Louise Bailey.

Miss Blanche Clegg entertained last Tuesday night in honor of her sister, Miss Neva Clegg and Vaughn Bennett, who will be married next week at the Clegg home on Ninth East street.

The decorations were in pink and white hearts, ribbons and sweet peas.

Pink sweet peas in a basket formed a centerpiece for the supper table. The guests included, in addition to the guests of honor, Miss Katherine Alder, Miss Ramona Clegg, Miss Nola McCaslin, Miss Donna Jones, Miss Helen Thomas, Miss Trieste Pearson, Miss Eleanor Woolley, Fred Stephens, Raymond Max, Neil Smith, Eugene Emmett, Walter Hall, Densel Lee and Frank Carey.

Mrs. W. G. Mackler entertained at bridge luncheon Tuesday at her home, 548 East Fourth South street, in honor of Mrs. E. J. Mackler, who will leave soon for California to make her home.

A lavender and pale yellow color scheme was carried out in the table decorations. Jonquills and hyacinths were used as centerpieces for small tables at which luncheon was served. The favors were in Easter ideas.

Bridge followed.

The guests, in addition to the guest of honor, were Mrs. R. J. Armstrong, Mrs. Edward Sudbury, Mrs. George Clark, Mrs. Harry Greenlyke, Mrs. Theo Willes, Mrs. Julian Hardy, Mrs. Louis Brown, Mrs. Edward Smith, Mrs. Leslie Covey, Mrs. Victor Ball, Mrs. R. B. Thurman, Mrs. Leo J. Bache, Mrs. W. W. Cassidy, Mrs. Frank Hart, Mrs. Tessa Alexander, Mrs. George C. West, Mrs. Jack McCarty, Mrs. I. Bernstein, Mrs. C. I. Allen, Mrs. Lillie Parker, Mrs. Harold Peck, Mrs. Fred Geue, Mrs. Clarence Nelson. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Leslie Covey, Mrs. Harold Peck, Mrs. Fred Geue and Mrs. George C. West.

The fourth birthday anniversary of Barbara Marie Knight, daughter of Major and Mrs. C. P. Knight, was celebrated with a tea party in the pleasant room of the Hotel Fifth East on last Wednesday afternoon. Easter ideas prevailed in the table decorations and Easter favors were given the small guests, including Winnifred Jackson, Helen Jackson, Peggy Snow, Anne Foster Caldwell, Mary Jane O'Neill, Betty Howard, Sylvia Young, Cecelia Young, Betty Critton, Allison Shore, George Worley, Claude Caldwell, Tanner Caldwell, Warren Colton, Richard Knight and Henry Knight.

Mrs. Knight was assisted by Mrs. Arthur L. Murray and Mrs. James P. O'Neill.

Boys and their activities formed the theme for the program at the Ladies' literary club Friday afternoon in the regular meeting at the clubhouse.

The boys' chorus of fifty voices of the Longfellow school, under the direction of Miss Ella Snyder, with Mrs. Arthur P. Prober as accompanist, gave several selections, which were much enjoyed. The numbers included "Mother of Mine," "Bruligh," and "Tomorrow Land," by Tundling.

An excellent paper entitled "Our Boys," was given by Mrs. F. W. Mead.

The decorations were in pink and white hearts, ribbons and sweet peas.

Pink sweet peas in a basket formed a centerpiece for the supper table. The guests included, in addition to the guests of honor, Miss Katherine Alder, Miss Ramona Clegg, Miss Nola McCaslin, Miss Donna Jones, Miss Helen Thomas, Miss Trieste Pearson, Miss Eleanor Woolley, Fred Stephens, Raymond Max, Neil Smith, Eugene Emmett, Walter Hall, Densel Lee and Frank Carey.

Mrs. W. G. Mackler entertained at bridge luncheon Tuesday at her home, 548 East Fourth South street, in honor of Mrs. E. J. Mackler, who will leave soon for California to make her home.

A lavender and pale yellow color scheme was carried out in the table decorations. Jonquills and hyacinths were used as centerpieces for small tables at which luncheon was served. The favors were in Easter ideas.

Bridge followed.

The guests, in addition to the guest of honor, were Mrs. R. J. Armstrong, Mrs. Edward Sudbury, Mrs. George Clark, Mrs. Harry Greenlyke, Mrs. Theo Willes, Mrs. Julian Hardy, Mrs. Louis Brown, Mrs. Edward Smith, Mrs. Leslie Covey, Mrs. Victor Ball, Mrs. R. B. Thurman, Mrs. Leo J. Bache, Mrs. W. W. Cassidy, Mrs. Frank Hart, Mrs. Tessa Alexander, Mrs. George C. West, Mrs. Jack McCarty, Mrs. I. Bernstein, Mrs. C. I. Allen, Mrs. Lillie Parker, Mrs. Harold Peck, Mrs. Fred Geue, Mrs. Clarence Nelson. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Leslie Covey, Mrs. Harold Peck, Mrs. Fred Geue and Mrs. George C. West.

The fourth birthday anniversary of Barbara Marie Knight, daughter of Major and Mrs. C. P. Knight, was celebrated with a tea party in the pleasant room of the Hotel Fifth East on last Wednesday afternoon. Easter ideas prevailed in the table decorations and Easter favors were given the small guests, including Winnifred Jackson, Helen Jackson, Peggy Snow, Anne Foster Caldwell, Mary Jane O'Neill, Betty Howard, Sylvia Young, Cecelia Young, Betty Critton, Allison Shore, George Worley, Claude Caldwell, Tanner Caldwell, Warren Colton, Richard Knight and Henry Knight.

white hearts, ribbons and sweet peas.

Pink sweet peas in a basket formed a centerpiece for the supper table. The guests included, in addition to the guests of honor, Miss Katherine Alder, Miss Ramona Clegg, Miss Nola McCaslin, Miss Donna Jones, Miss Helen Thomas, Miss Trieste Pearson, Miss Eleanor Woolley, Fred Stephens, Raymond Max, Neil Smith, Eugene Emmett, Walter Hall, Densel Lee and Frank Carey.

Mrs. W. G. Mackler entertained at bridge luncheon Tuesday at her home, 548 East Fourth South street, in honor of Mrs. E. J. Mackler, who will leave soon for California to make her home.

A lavender and pale yellow color scheme was carried out in the table decorations. Jonquills and hyacinths were used as centerpieces for small tables at which luncheon was served. The favors were in Easter ideas.

Bridge followed.

The guests, in addition to the guest of honor, were Mrs. R. J. Armstrong, Mrs. Edward Sudbury, Mrs. George Clark, Mrs. Harry Greenlyke, Mrs. Theo Willes, Mrs. Julian Hardy, Mrs. Louis Brown, Mrs. Edward Smith, Mrs. Leslie Covey, Mrs. Victor Ball, Mrs. R. B. Thurman, Mrs. Leo J. Bache, Mrs. W. W. Cassidy, Mrs. Frank Hart, Mrs. Tessa Alexander, Mrs. George C. West, Mrs. Jack McCarty, Mrs. I. Bernstein, Mrs. C. I. Allen, Mrs. Lillie Parker, Mrs. Harold Peck, Mrs. Fred Geue, Mrs. Clarence Nelson. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Leslie Covey, Mrs. Harold Peck, Mrs. Fred Geue and Mrs. George C. West.

The fourth birthday anniversary of Barbara Marie Knight, daughter of Major and Mrs. C. P. Knight, was celebrated with a tea party in the pleasant room of the Hotel Fifth East on last Wednesday afternoon. Easter ideas prevailed in the table decorations and Easter favors were given the small guests, including Winnifred Jackson, Helen Jackson, Peggy Snow, Anne Foster Caldwell, Mary Jane O'Neill, Betty Howard, Sylvia Young, Cecelia Young, Betty Critton, Allison Shore, George Worley, Claude Caldwell, Tanner Caldwell, Warren Colton, Richard Knight and Henry Knight.

Mrs. Knight was assisted by Mrs. Arthur L. Murray and Mrs. James P. O'Neill.

Boys and their activities formed the theme for the program at the Ladies' literary club Friday afternoon in the regular meeting at the clubhouse.

The boys' chorus of fifty voices of the Longfellow school, under the direction of Miss Ella Snyder, with Mrs. Arthur P. Prober as accompanist, gave several selections, which were much enjoyed. The numbers included "Mother of Mine," "Bruligh," and "Tomorrow Land," by Tundling.

An excellent paper entitled "Our Boys," was given by Mrs. F. W. Mead.

The decorations were in pink and white hearts, ribbons and sweet peas.

Pink sweet peas in a basket formed a centerpiece for the supper table. The guests included, in addition to the guests of honor, Miss Katherine Alder, Miss Ramona Clegg, Miss Nola McCaslin, Miss Donna Jones, Miss Helen Thomas, Miss Trieste Pearson, Miss Eleanor Woolley, Fred Stephens, Raymond Max, Neil Smith, Eugene Emmett, Walter Hall, Densel Lee and Frank Carey.

Mrs. W. G. Mackler entertained at bridge luncheon Tuesday at her home, 548 East Fourth South street, in honor of Mrs. E. J. Mackler, who will leave soon for California to make her home.

A lavender and pale yellow color scheme was carried out in the table decorations. Jonquills and hyacinths were used as centerpieces for small tables at which luncheon was served. The favors were in Easter ideas.

Bridge followed.

The guests, in addition to the guest of honor, were Mrs. R. J. Armstrong, Mrs. Edward Sudbury, Mrs. George Clark, Mrs. Harry Greenlyke, Mrs. Theo Willes, Mrs. Julian Hardy, Mrs. Louis Brown, Mrs. Edward Smith, Mrs. Leslie Covey, Mrs. Victor Ball, Mrs. R. B. Thurman, Mrs. Leo J. Bache, Mrs. W. W. Cassidy, Mrs. Frank Hart, Mrs. Tessa Alexander, Mrs. George C. West, Mrs. Jack McCarty, Mrs. I. Bernstein, Mrs. C. I. Allen, Mrs. Lillie Parker, Mrs. Harold Peck, Mrs. Fred Geue, Mrs. Clarence Nelson. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Leslie Covey, Mrs. Harold Peck, Mrs. Fred Geue and Mrs. George C. West.

The fourth birthday anniversary of Barbara Marie Knight, daughter of Major and Mrs. C. P. Knight, was celebrated with a tea party in the pleasant room of the Hotel Fifth East on last Wednesday afternoon. Easter ideas prevailed in the table decorations and Easter favors were given the small guests, including Winnifred Jackson, Helen Jackson, Peggy Snow, Anne Foster Caldwell, Mary Jane O'Neill, Betty Howard, Sylvia Young, Cecelia Young, Betty Critton, Allison Shore, George Worley, Claude Caldwell, Tanner Caldwell, Warren Colton, Richard Knight and Henry Knight.

Mrs. Knight was assisted by Mrs. Arthur L. Murray and Mrs. James P. O'Neill.

Boys and their activities formed the theme for the program at the Ladies' literary club Friday afternoon in the regular meeting at the clubhouse.

The boys' chorus of fifty voices of the Longfellow school, under the direction of Miss Ella Snyder, with Mrs. Arthur P. Prober as accompanist, gave several selections, which were much enjoyed. The numbers included "Mother of Mine," "Bruligh," and "Tomorrow Land," by Tundling.

An excellent paper entitled "Our Boys," was given by Mrs. F. W. Mead.

The decorations were in pink and white hearts, ribbons and sweet peas.

Pink sweet peas in a basket formed a centerpiece for the supper table. The guests included, in addition to the guests of honor, Miss Katherine Alder, Miss Ramona Clegg, Miss Nola McCaslin, Miss Donna Jones, Miss Helen Thomas, Miss Trieste Pearson, Miss Eleanor Woolley, Fred Stephens, Raymond Max, Neil Smith, Eugene Emmett, Walter Hall, Densel Lee and Frank Carey.

Mrs. W. G. Mackler entertained at bridge luncheon Tuesday at her home, 548 East Fourth South street, in honor of Mrs. E. J. Mackler, who will leave soon for California to make her home.

A lavender and pale yellow color scheme was carried out in the table decorations. Jonquills and hyacinths were used as centerpieces for small tables at which luncheon was served. The favors were in Easter ideas.

Bridge followed.

The guests, in addition to the guest of honor, were Mrs. R. J. Armstrong, Mrs. Edward Sudbury, Mrs. George Clark, Mrs. Harry Greenlyke, Mrs. Theo Willes, Mrs. Julian Hardy, Mrs. Louis Brown, Mrs. Edward Smith, Mrs. Leslie Covey, Mrs. Victor Ball, Mrs. R. B. Thurman, Mrs. Leo J. Bache, Mrs. W. W. Cassidy, Mrs. Frank Hart, Mrs. Tessa Alexander, Mrs. George C. West, Mrs. Jack McCarty, Mrs. I. Bernstein, Mrs. C. I. Allen, Mrs. Lillie Parker, Mrs. Harold Peck, Mrs. Fred Geue, Mrs. Clarence Nelson. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Leslie Covey, Mrs. Harold Peck, Mrs. Fred Geue and Mrs. George C. West.

The fourth birthday anniversary of Barbara Marie Knight, daughter of Major and Mrs. C. P. Knight, was celebrated with a tea party in the pleasant room of the Hotel Fifth East on last Wednesday afternoon. Easter ideas prevailed in the table decorations and Easter favors were given the small guests, including Winnifred Jackson, Helen Jackson, Peggy Snow, Anne Foster Caldwell, Mary Jane O'Neill, Betty Howard, Sylvia Young, Cecelia Young, Betty Critton, Allison Shore, George Worley, Claude Caldwell, Tanner Caldwell, Warren Colton, Richard Knight and Henry Knight.

Mrs. Knight was assisted by Mrs. Arthur L. Murray and Mrs. James P. O'Neill.

Boys and their activities formed the theme for the program at the Ladies' literary club Friday afternoon in the regular meeting at the clubhouse.

The boys' chorus of fifty voices of the Longfellow school, under the direction of Miss Ella Snyder, with Mrs. Arthur P. Prober as accompanist, gave several selections, which were much enjoyed. The numbers included "Mother of Mine," "Bruligh," and "Tomorrow Land," by Tundling.

An excellent paper entitled "Our Boys," was given by Mrs. F. W. Mead.

kin. Oscar A. Kirkham, Boy Scout director, gave an interesting address on "Building Americans," and had charge of an exhibition of Boy Scout work.

A piano solo was given by Kenneth Sloan of troop 76, Boy Scouts. A whistling solo was the offering of Charles Taylor of troop 35.

Formal respect to the American flag, including bugle calls, pledge to the flag and scout oath, were given by Dilance Bishop of troop 15 and Sumner McAllister, Rogers Reynolds, William Wilson and Donald Gates of troop 51.

Illustr